

Parental Involvement Policy

This policy describes how we realise that parents are the first educators of their young children. The aim of the group is to support their essential work, not to supplement them. We will:

Make all new parents aware of the Pre-schools systems and policies.

We will adhere to the principles of the General Data Protection Regulations (2018) when collecting and processing information about you and your child. We explain how your data is processed, collected, kept up-to-date in our Privacy Notice which is given to you at the point of registration.

Have an open door policy where parents are welcome to join the in with the day to day running of the pre-school.

Encourage parents on an individual basis to play an active part in the management of the group.

Ensure that the parents are informed on a regular basis about their child's progress through their child's key person.

Give parents the opportunity to share information and contribute to their child's individual planning.

Ensure that all parents have opportunities to contribute from their own skills, knowledge and interests to the activities of the group.

Ensure that all parents are fully informed about meetings.

Consult with families about the times of meetings to avoid excluding anyone.

Hold meetings in venues which are accessible and appropriate to all.

Welcome the contributions of parents, whatever form they may take.

Make known to all parents the systems for registering queries, complaints or suggestions.

Provide opportunities for parents to learn about the pre-school curriculum and about young children's learning, in pre-school and at home.

All regular volunteers and committee members will require a DBS check (Disclosure and Barring service).
